TO THE HONORABLE CECELIA G. MORRIS
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Baker & Hostetler LLP (“B&H”), as counsel to Irving H. Picard, Esq., trustee (the “Trustee”) for the substantively consolidated liquidation proceeding of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”) under the Securities Investor Protection Act (“SIPA”), 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq.,¹ and the chapter 7 case of Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”), individually (collectively, the “Debtor”), respectfully submits this thirty-ninth application (the “Application”) on behalf of the Trustee and itself for an order pursuant to § 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, §§ 330 and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and the Order Pursuant to § 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, sections 105, 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1 Establishing Procedures Governing Interim Monthly Compensation of Trustee and Baker & Hostetler LLP, dated February 25, 2009 (ECF No. 126), as amended on December 17, 2009 and June 1, 2011 (ECF Nos. 1078, 4125) (collectively, the “Second Amended Compensation Order”), allowing and awarding (i) interim compensation for services performed by the Trustee and B&H for the period commencing December 1, 2021 through and including March 31, 2022 (the “Compensation Period”) of $35,682,411.60, (ii) reimbursement of the Trustee’s and B&H’s actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period of $488,259.37, and (iii) release of $10,071,889.38, a portion of the amount which has not been paid in connection with prior and current applications, and in support thereof, respectfully represents as follows:

¹References hereinafter to provisions of SIPA shall omit “15 U.S.C.”

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The work completed as counsel to the Trustee during the Compensation Period yielded significant results for BLMIS customers and the liquidation. Through pre-litigation and other settlements, which were approved by the Bankruptcy Court and/or the District Court, the Trustee has successfully recovered, or reached agreements to recover, over $14.532 billion as of May 31, 2022 for the benefit of all customers of BLMIS with an allowed claim.²

2. The Trustee has made thirteen interim distributions of customer property to date. See discussion infra Section IV(A)(h). The Trustee has distributed approximately $14.276 billion to BLMIS customers through May 31, 2022, inclusive of SIPC advances in the amount of nearly $849.9 million.³ See discussion infra Section IV(A)(h).

3. No administration costs, including the compensation of the Trustee and his counsel, will be paid out of any recoveries obtained by the Trustee for the benefit of BLMIS customers. Because the percentage commission schedule for trustees found in § 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is not applicable in a SIPA liquidation, see § 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, no applications filed by the Trustee have or will ever include a fee request based on recoveries made by the Trustee for the benefit of BLMIS customers. Rather, all fees, expenses, and administrative costs incurred by the Trustee and his counsel including, but not limited to, B&H, various international special counsel retained by the Trustee (collectively referred to herein as “International Counsel”), including Browne Jacobson LLP (“Brown Jacobson”), Soroker-Agmon (“Soroker”), Williams Barristers & Attorneys (“Williams Barristers”), various special counsel to the Trustee (collectively referred to herein as “Counsel”), including Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx”), Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP (“Young Conaway”), and consultants, are paid out of administrative advances made by SIPC, as SIPA plainly directs. As Judge Lifland affirmed: “Again, the emphasis is that these fees . . . are not coming from any of the victims, and they’re not coming from the estate.” Fifth Appl. Hr’g Tr. 32:15-17, Dec. 14, 2010.

²In general, figures will be reported as of March 31, 2022, unless otherwise noted.

³SIPC makes advances to satisfy customer claims before the Trustee recovers funds. Since the Trustee has recovered funds to satisfy customers up to $1,691,768.98, SIPC is reimbursed for the advances to customers whose claims have been fully satisfied to date. 1,509 BLMIS accounts have been fully satisfied.

4. As the Trustee’s and his counsels’ fees and expenses are chargeable to the general estate and not to the fund of customer property (the “Customer Fund”), the payment of the same has absolutely no impact on the Trustee’s current and future recoveries that have been and will be allocated to the Customer Fund for pro rata distribution to BLMIS customers whose claims have been allowed by the Trustee.

5. In a SIPA liquidation proceeding such as this, where the general estate is insufficient to pay trustee and counsel compensation, SIPC plays a specific role with compensation and is required to advance funds to pay the costs of administration. See SIPA §§ 78eee(b)(5)(C) and 78fff-3(b)(2). SIPC staff has carefully reviewed this Application, as it has all other compensation applications, and has closely analyzed the time records and services rendered. Each month, SIPC staff, the Trustee, and B&H engage in extensive discussions regarding billings, and the Trustee and B&H make reductions where appropriate and finalize the amounts that appear herein. Thus, the requested fees and expenses in this Application include (i) fees at the Trustee’s and B&H’s hourly billable rates to which a public interest discount of 10% has been applied, and (ii) actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses incurred within the Compensation Period.

6. During the hearing on the Eighth Interim Fee Application, Judge Lifland acknowledged the worldwide efforts of the Trustee and his counsel and approved the application:

Well, having heard the description and being well aware of the worldwide activities started off by Bernie Madoff and the sequelae is left for everybody else to follow all the trails and the trails do lead almost everywhere in the world. It is clear under the circumstances that a Herculean effort to follow those trails has been involved both with counsel here in the United States and counsel overseas.

Eighth Appl. Hr'g Tr. 16, Mar. 15, 2012, ECF No. 4736.

7. No single document can capture all of the tasks engaged in by the Trustee and B&H since their appointment on December 15, 2008. Hundreds of thousands of hours have been expended in support of the Trustee's efforts to liquidate the estate, determine customer claims, and advance the interests of all claimants by litigating and settling cases for the return of customer property ("Customer Property"). Moreover, the Trustee has vigorously defended the estate with respect to a number of litigations filed against it and against his protection of Customer Property. The following discussion and materials attached to this Application cover the major categories of services for which allowance of compensation is sought.

II. BACKGROUND

A. THE SIPA LIQUIDATION

8. The Trustee and B&H's prior interim fee applications, each of which is fully incorporated herein, have detailed the circumstances surrounding the filing of this case and the events that have taken place during prior phases of this proceeding.

B. THE TRUSTEE, COUNSEL AND CONSULTANTS

9. The Trustee and B&H's prior interim fee applications have detailed the description of the Trustee's background and experience.

10. In rendering professional services to the Trustee, B&H has utilized a legal team comprised of professionals with extensive experience in areas such as bankruptcy, securities, tax, corporate, and litigation, permitting the Trustee to conduct this liquidation efficiently.

11. The Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Madoff through BLMIS was vast in scope, long in duration, and broad in its geographical reach. The Trustee, with the assistance of his counsel, has undertaken a comprehensive investigation of BLMIS, Madoff, and hundreds of related individuals and entities. To this end, the Trustee has engaged not only the services of counsel, but also those of forensic accountants and legal experts, including, but not limited to, AlixPartners LLP (“AlixPartners”), the Trustee’s consultant and claims agent; FTI Consulting (“FTI”); and several investigative and industry consultants (collectively referred to herein as the “Consultants”).

C. PRIOR COMPENSATION ORDERS

12. The Trustee and B&H filed applications for allowance of interim compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in prior periods, and this Court approved those applications:

III. SUMMARY OF SERVICES

13. A SIPA proceeding contemplates, inter alia, the processing of customer claims, the orderly liquidation of the business of a broker-dealer, and the return of Customer Property to the failed brokerage's customers. Accordingly, the Trustee's and B&H's services, which are summarized in greater detail below, are comprised of specific tasks that are critical to accomplishing those objectives.

A. HARDSHIP PROGRAM

14. After nearly 12 years, the Trustee officially terminated the Hardship Program. Statistics regarding how many customers availed themselves of the Hardship Program are detailed in prior fee applications. After reviewing the facts and circumstances presented in each application and, in many cases, requesting additional verifying information, as of March 31, 2022, the Trustee had dismissed 284 Hardship Program applicants-defendants from avoidance actions. As of March 31, 2022, all Hardship Program applicants-defendants had been reviewed and 366 applicants-defendants were resolved because they were either withdrawn by the applicant, deemed withdrawn for failure of the applicant to pursue the application, denied for lack of hardship or referred for consideration of settlement.

B. THE RECOVERY AND RETURN OF CUSTOMER PROPERTY

15. Without the need for protracted litigation, during the Compensation Period, the Trustee settled five cases for $24,368,716.43. Through the end of the Compensation Period, the Trustee had successfully recovered approximately $14.529 billion.

16. The Trustee entered into settlements subsequent to the Compensation Period that will bring additional funds into the Customer Fund.

17. The Trustee is also engaged in ongoing settlement negotiations with a number of parties that when completed, will result in additional recoveries for the benefit of customers without the delay and expense of protracted litigation.

18. Through the end of the Compensation Period, the Trustee recovered $536,092,384.27 as a result of preferences and other settlements that were made pursuant to agreements subject to the net equity dispute. The United States Supreme Court (the “Supreme Court”) declined to review the net equity dispute.

IV. DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

19. Given the unprecedented fraud perpetrated by Madoff, the issues presented by this liquidation are complex, discovery is wide-ranging, and the litigation that has ensued is hotly contested. All of this requires an enormous effort by the Trustee and his counsel for the benefit of the victims. The following is a more detailed synopsis of the significant services rendered by the Trustee and B&H during the Compensation Period, organized according to internal B&H matter numbers and task codes.

20. Matter Number 01 is the general matter number used for tasks by the Trustee and B&H. Task numbers for Matter Number 01 have been assigned for specific categories of work to permit a more detailed analysis of the fees incurred.

21. Matter Numbers 03-77 (with the exception of Matter Number 05, which relates to customer claims) relate to litigation brought by the Trustee and B&H against various individuals, feeder funds, and entities. In each of these matters, the Trustee and B&H attorneys perform several functions, including the following tasks: conduct legal research, draft internal memoranda, engage in internal meetings regarding investigation and litigation strategy and engage in discussions with counsel for defendant(s). Rather than repeat these tasks, the description of each matter will be limited to matter-specific tasks and case activity that occurred during the Compensation Period.

A. MATTER 01

22. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H and encompasses the below enumerated tasks.

a. Task Code 05: Internal Meetings with Staff

23. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys in internal meetings regarding the liquidation proceeding, investigation and litigation strategy, as well as training sessions for attorneys and paraprofessionals. Internal meetings and discussions have ensured the effective use of time spent on this matter and avoided duplicative efforts.

b. Task Code 07: Billing and Trustee Reports

24. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee, B&H attorneys, and paraprofessionals reviewing the monthly B&H billing statements prior to submitting the statements to SIPC to ensure that time was properly billed, correcting any errors in time entries, writing off certain time and expenses as agreed to by B&H, preparing fee applications, responding to motions for leave to appeal fee orders, preparing Trustee reports, and other related tasks.

c. Task Code 08: Case Administration

25. This category relates to time spent assisting the efficient administration of the case.

26. The Trustee filed several motions before this Court that govern the treatment of and procedures related to the efficient litigation of these actions. These procedures ensure compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and SIPA, as well as consistency and transparency.

27. On October 20, 2011, the Trustee and B&H moved for an Order Establishing Noticing Procedures in order to streamline the procedural aspects of service in the main proceeding and all related adversary proceedings. (ECF No. 4469). This Court entered the Order on December 5, 2011. (ECF No. 4560).

28. On October 28, 2011, this Court entered an Order Granting Supplemental Authority to Stipulate to Extensions of Time to Respond and Adjourn Pre-Trial Conferences to March 16, 2012. (ECF No. 4483). Supplemental Orders were entered granting authority to extend time to respond to the complaint and adjourn the pre-trial conferences through September 14, 2012 (ECF No. 4483), July 18, 2014 (ECF No. 5358), January 16, 2015 (ECF No. 7037), July 17, 2015 (ECF No. 8762), July 15, 2016 (ECF No. 12312), December 23, 2016 (ECF No. 13601), July 31, 2017 (ECF No. 14447), December 31, 2017 (ECF No. 16169), June 27, 2018 (ECF No. 16718), December 19, 2018 (ECF No. 17560), December 18, 2019 (ECF No. 18093), December 16, 2020 (ECF No. 19027), October 5, 2020 (ECF No. 19826), December 31, 2021 (ECF No. 20418), and November 16, 2021 (ECF No. 20884). On March 1, 2022, a supplemental Order was entered granting authority to extend time to respond to the complaint and adjourn the pre-trial conferences through December 14, 2022 (ECF No. 21193).

d. Task Code 11: Press Inquiries and Responses

29. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee, B&H attorneys, and paraprofessionals in responding to press inquiries, preparing and issuing press releases, and preparing for and holding press conferences relating to BLMIS, Madoff, customer claims, and the recovery of funds.

e. Task Code 12: Document Review

30. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys reviewing and analyzing BLMIS documents and documents received from parties and third parties in response to the hundreds of letters and subpoenas issued by the Trustee, in order to assess relevance to case-wide strategies and to identify and develop evidence in support of the Trustee's claims and defenses, as well as other discovery-related tasks that cross multiple cases.

f. Task Code 13: Depositions and Document Productions by the Trustee

31. This category generally relates to time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys conducting discovery that touches upon more than one matter, including team meetings, discussions and strategizing among Discovery Management Team case liaisons; research and analysis of issues with potential case-wide implications; creation and management of document databases, filing systems and related reference materials; creation and revision of discovery resources and procedural guidance; analysis and coordination of discovery affirmatively produced by the Trustee in avoidance actions; and responding to discovery propounded to the Trustee by various third parties and defendants in avoidance actions.

g. Task Code 14: International

32. The fraud Madoff perpetrated through BLMIS has many international implications involving foreign individuals, feeder funds, and international banking institutions. The Trustee is actively investigating and seeking to recover assets for the BLMIS estate in many different jurisdictions, including Austria, the Bahamas, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands (“BVI”), Canada, the Cayman Islands, England, France, Ireland, Israel, Luxembourg, Spain, and Switzerland. These investigations utilize a combination of voluntary requests for information and the use of the Trustee’s subpoena power.

33. This category relates to the ongoing investigation, the preparation and service of subpoenas against entities in many jurisdictions, service of process, and communication with International Counsel regarding the utilization of local laws to obtain necessary discovery and pursue recovery of customer property in foreign jurisdictions. The investigation is made challenging by the broad array of bank secrecy statutes and other foreign legislation designed to limit discovery.

34. In addition, time categorized by this task code relates to the participation in and monitoring of various BLMIS-related third-party actions brought in Europe and the Caribbean, as well as discussions with International Counsel on strategic and jurisprudential matters that involve multiple actions against more than one defendant.

h. Task Code 21: Allocation

35. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys coordinating the distribution of Customer Property.

36. The ultimate purpose of marshaling the Customer Fund is to distribute those monies, as SIPA directs, to BLMIS customers with allowed claims.

37. The Trustee filed thirteen motions seeking entry of an order approving allocations of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing pro rata interim distributions of Customer Property, and this Court entered orders approving those motions:

38. On February 25, 2022, the Trustee distributed over $112 million, or 0.604% of each BLMIS allowed claim through the completion of the Thirteenth Interim Distribution, unless the ⁶The total amount allocated in the Fifth Allocation and Fifth Interim Distribution Motion was $704,395,951.58. Between the filing of that motion and the Fifth Interim Distribution date, an additional $52,142,279.87 was recovered and included in the numerator.

⁷This represents the amount allocated to the Customer Fund in the Supplemental Sixth Allocation and Sixth Interim Distribution Motion filed on October 20, 2015. The original Sixth Allocation and Sixth Interim Distribution Motion filed on April 15, 2015 did not allocate any additional recoveries to the Customer Fund; the Trustee simply re-allocated $1,448,717,625.26 of funds that had previously been allocated to the Customer Fund for the Time-Based Damages Reserve.

claim had been fully satisfied. This represents a significant milestone in this litigation, with 1,509 BLMIS accounts fully satisfied through the end of the Compensation Period.⁸ The 1,509 fully satisfied accounts represent nearly 66% of accounts with allowed claims. When combined with the prior twelve distributions, and $849.9 million in advances paid or committed to be paid by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”), the Trustee has distributed over $14.276 billion to BLMIS customers through March 31, 2022, or 70.452% of each BLMIS allowed customer claim.

B. MATTER 05 – CUSTOMER CLAIMS

a. Customer Claims

39. As of March 31, 2022, the total amount of allowed claims is $19,416,279,866.92, and the Trustee has paid or committed to pay $849,868,412.47 in cash advances from SIPC. This is the largest commitment of SIPC funds of any SIPA liquidation proceeding and greatly exceeds the total aggregate payments made in all other SIPA liquidations to date.

40. As of March 31, 2022, 11 claims relating to 7 accounts remained “deemed determined,” meaning that the Trustee has instituted litigation against those account holders and related parties. The complaints filed by the Trustee in those litigations set forth the express grounds for disallowance of customer claims under §502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such claims will not be allowed until the avoidance actions are resolved by settlement or otherwise and the judgments rendered against the claimants in the avoidance actions are satisfied.

b. General Creditor Claims

41. As of March 31, 2022, the Trustee had received 428 timely and 22 untimely filed secured and unsecured priority and non-priority general creditor claims totaling approximately ⁸Any customer with an allowed claim of $1,691,768.98 has been fully satisfied.

$1.7 billion. The claimants include vendors, taxing authorities, employees, and customers filing claims on non-customer proof of claim forms. Of these 450 claims and $1.7 billion, the Trustee has received 95 general creditor claims and 49 broker-dealer claims totaling approximately $265 million. At this time, the BLMIS general estate has no funds from which to make distributions to priority/non-priority general creditors and/or broker dealers. If the Trustee is able to fully satisfy the net equity claims of the BLMIS customers, any funds remaining will be allocated to the general estate and distributed in the order of priority established in Bankruptcy Code § 726 and SIPA § 78fff(e). All BLMIS customers who filed claims—whether their net equity customer claims were allowed or denied—are deemed to be general creditors of the BLMIS estate. The Trustee is working diligently on behalf of all creditors and will seek to satisfy all creditor claims.

c. The Trustee Has Kept Customers Informed Of The Status Of The Claims Process

42. Throughout the liquidation proceeding, the Trustee has kept claimants, general creditors, interested parties, and the public informed of his efforts by maintaining the Trustee Website (www.madofftrustee.com), a toll-free customer hotline, conducting a Bankruptcy Code § 341(a) meeting of creditors on February 20, 2009, and responding in a timely manner to the multitude of phone calls, e-mails, and letters received on a daily basis, both from claimants and their representatives.

43. The Trustee Website allows the Trustee to share information with claimants, their representatives, and the general public with regard to the ongoing recovery efforts and the overall liquidation. In addition to court filings, media statements, and weekly information on claims determinations, the Trustee Website includes up-to-date information on the status of Customer Fund recoveries, an “Ask the Trustee” page where questions of interest are answered and updated, a letter from the Trustee’s Chief Counsel on litigation matters, a detailed distribution page, an FAQs page, and a timeline of important events. The Trustee Website is monitored and updated on a daily basis.

44. In addition, the Trustee Website allows claimants and third parties to e-mail their questions directly to the Trustee's professionals, who follow up with a return e-mail or telephone call to the claimants. As of March 31, 2022, the Trustee and his professionals had received and responded to thousands of e-mails via the Trustee Website from BLMIS customers and their representatives and fielded thousands of calls from claimants and their representatives.

45. In sum, the Trustee and his team have endeavored to respond in a timely manner to every customer inquiry and ensure that the customers are as informed as possible about various aspects of the BLMIS proceeding.

C. MATTER 09 – FAIRFIELD GREENWICH

("Sigma"), Fairfield Lambda Ltd. ("Lambda") (collectively, the "Fairfield Funds"), Greenwich Sentry, L.P. ("Greenwich Sentry"), Greenwich Sentry Partners, L.P. ("Greenwich Sentry Partners", and together with Greenwich Sentry, the "Greenwich Funds"), and other defendants seeking the return of approximately $3.5 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent conveyances, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Fairfield Funds and the Greenwich Funds. Picard v. Fairfield Sentry Ltd. (In Liquidation), Adv. No. 09-01239 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 18, 2009). This matter also categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing avoidance and recovery actions, as well as damages claims against other Fairfield Greenwich Group related entities and individuals, including the founding partners and other management officials.

47. On June 7, 2011, this Court conditionally approved a settlement agreement between the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators for the Fairfield Funds (the “Joint Liquidators”) (ECF No. 95). On June 24, 2011, the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in the High Court of Justice of the Virgin Islands approved the settlement agreement between the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators. On July 13, 2011, this Court entered consent judgments between the Trustee and Lambda in the amount of $52.9 million (ECF No. 108), Sentry in the amount of $3.054 billion (ECF No. 109), and Sigma in the amount of $752.3 million (ECF No. 110).

48. As part of the Fairfield Funds settlement, Sentry agreed to permanently reduce its net equity claim from approximately $960 million to $230 million. Additionally, the Joint Liquidators agreed to make a $70 million payment to the Customer Fund. The Joint Liquidators also agreed to assign to the Trustee all of the Fairfield Funds’ claims against the Fairfield Greenwich Group management companies, officers, and partners, and the Trustee retained his own claims against the management defendants. Further, the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators agreed to share future recoveries in varying amounts, depending on the nature of the claims.

49. On July 7, 2011, this Court approved a settlement between the Trustee and the Greenwich Funds, wherein this Court entered judgment against Greenwich Sentry in an amount over $206 million and against Greenwich Sentry Partners in an amount over $5.9 million. Picard v. Fairfield Sentry, Adv. No. 09-01239 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), (ECF No. 107). In the settlement, the Greenwich Funds agreed to permanently reduce their net equity claim from approximately $143 million to approximately $37 million, for a combined reduction of over $105.9 million. Additionally, the Greenwich Funds assigned to the Trustee all of their claims against Fairfield Greenwich Group management and agreed to share with the Trustee any recoveries they receive against service providers.

50. On April 2, 2012, the remaining defendants in the Fairfield Sentry action filed motions to withdraw the reference on a number of issues that later became subject to common briefing and hearings before Judge Rakoff of the District Court. The Trustee briefed and presented argument at the hearings on these issues before the District Court. As of July 31, 2014, the District Court had issued decisions on all issues subject to common briefing and remanded the cases to this Court for further findings based on the legal standards set forth in the District Court's decisions.

51. On June 6, 2012, the Trustee filed additional recovery actions against entities or persons related to Fairfield Greenwich Group employees or partners entitled Picard v. RD Trust, Adv. The parties in the Toub action have entered into a stipulated stay as permitted by this Court. None of the defendants in the three actions have yet responded to the Trustee's complaints.

52. On November 22, 2016, this Court issued its decision on the extraterritoriality motion to dismiss. See discussion infra Section IV(U). Under the decision, some of the claims against the moving defendants in the Fairfield, Barrenche, and RD Trust actions were dismissed. Following the extraterritoriality decision, the Trustee and defendants agreed to the joinder of certain non-moving defendants to the extraterritoriality motion to dismiss. The parties agreed to consent to the entry of final judgments on the Court's extraterritoriality decision. Finally, the parties consented to direct appeal of the extraterritoriality decision to the Second Circuit. On March 16, 2017, the Trustee filed his notice of appeal in the Fairfield, Barrenche, and RD Trust actions. (ECF Nos. 229, 97, 93). 153. On April 18, 2022, Defendants filed a letter with the Court stating they would rely upon their papers in lieu of oral argument, scheduled to be held before Judge Morris on April 20, 2022. The Trustee filed a letter in response, stating he had no objection to the parties' reliance on the summary judgment submissions, and asserted his right to judgment as a matter of law because Defendants failed to respond to the Trustee's Statement of Material Facts and failed to provide their own statement of facts, as required by Local Rule 7056-1(c). See Adv. Pro. No. 10-04762, ECF Nos. 118–19. On April 19, 2022, Judge Morris canceled the scheduled oral arguments. See id., No. 121. E. MATTER 29 – RYE/TREMONT

154. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys following the settled avoidance action filed on December 7, 2010, against Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Tremont Partners, Inc., Tremont (Bermuda) Ltd., Rye Select Broad Market Fund, and numerous related investment funds, entities and individuals (collectively, the “Tremont Funds”) in which the Trustee sought the return of approximately $2.1 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences and fraudulent conveyances in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS (the “Tremont Litigation”). Picard v. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05310 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 7, 2010).

155. After the court filing, the parties entered into substantive settlement negotiations, which resulted in a significant settlement approved by the Court on September 22, 2011. The settlement between the Trustee, the Tremont Funds and the former chief executive of Tremont Group Holdings, Inc. resulted in the cash payment amount of $1.025 billion. Picard v. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05310 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 7, 2010), (ECF No. 38). This is the largest cash settlement to date in any case brought by the Trustee against any feeder or investment fund.

156. Two objections to the settlement agreement were filed by non-BLMIS customers, both of which were overruled by this Court. There were two non-settling defendants at the time, Sandra Manzke (“Manzke”) and Rye Select Broad Market XL Portfolio Limited (“XL Portfolio”).

157. Certain objectors filed an appeal of the Tremont settlement on October 18, 2011. See Picard v. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Adv. Proc. No. 11-7330 (GBD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 18, 2011). On June 27, 2012, United States District Judge George B. Daniels granted the Trustee’s motion to dismiss the appeal, and judgment was entered on June 28, 2012. (ECF Nos. 35, 36).

158. On July 27, 2012, an appeal of the judgment was filed with the Second Circuit. (ECF No. 37). Prior to submitting any briefing, however, the parties submitted a joint stipulation of dismissal, and the appeal was dismissed on October 25, 2012. (ECF No. 39). Accordingly, Tremont delivered $1.025 billion into an escrow account on November 6, 2012, and the settlement payment was released from escrow to the Trustee on February 8, 2013. Thereupon, the Trustee allowed certain customer claims related to Tremont.

159. On February 10, 2012, defendant XL Portfolio settled with the Trustee in connection with the Tremont Litigation, as well as two other actions commenced on December 8, 2010, by the Trustee against XL Portfolio and other defendants. These other actions are captioned Picard v. ABN AMRO Bank, N.V. et al., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05354 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010) and Picard v. ABN AMRO (Ireland) Ltd., et al., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05355 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010).

160. On September 17, 2013, the remaining defendant in the Tremont Litigation, Manzke, who was also a defendant in the captioned action, Picard v. Maxam Absolute Return Fund Ltd., et al., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05342 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010), settled both actions against her. After the Maxam settlement, Manzke was dismissed from the Tremont Litigation, and that case closed.

161. During the Compensation Period, strategy and investigation for proposed actions and drafting of amended pleadings against subsequent transferees has continued. This includes work involving issues related to establishing and supporting elements of actual knowledge or willful blindness of some of the proposed defendants, analysis consistent with recent court rulings, and preparation for proving at trial the underlying allegations against Tremont itself in support of several of the Trustee's avoidance actions against the recipients of subsequent transfers.

F. MATTER 30 – HSBC

162. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing claims against HSBC Bank plc, HSBC Securities Services (Luxembourg) S.A., eleven other HSBC

167. On March 27, 2018, this Court approved a partial settlement between the Trustee and Alpha Prime Fund, Ltd., which resulted in over $76 million in consideration to the Estate. *Picard v. Oral argument was heard on September 19, 2019, and on September 23, 2019, the Court denied Alpha Prime's motion to dismiss and granted the Trustee's motion to amend. Picard v. HSBC Bank PLC, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 09-01364, ECF No. 566.

169. On September 24, 2019, the Trustee filed his amended complaint against Alpha Prime. Picard v. HSBC Bank PLC, et al., Adv. Pro. No. 09-01364, ECF No. 567. Litigation is ongoing.

This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing bankruptcy claims against UBS AG, UBS (Luxembourg) SA, UBS Fund Services (Luxembourg) SA, and numerous other entities and individuals (collectively, the "Luxalpha Defendants") seeking the return of approximately $1 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent conveyances, and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Luxalpha Defendants (the "Luxalpha Action"). Picard v. UBS AG, Adv. No. 10-04285 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 22, 2012).

171. This matter also incorporates time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Luxembourg Investment Fund, UBS entities, and other defendants (the "LIF Defendants") seeking the return of approximately $555 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS

(the “LIF Action”). Picard v. UBS AG, Adv. No. 10-05311 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 22, 2012).

172. In connection with the Luxalpha Action, on March 2, 2020, the Trustee filed his Motion for Leave to File a Second Amended Complaint and Proposed Second Amended Complaint. Citibank, N.A.*, Case No. 20-1333 and Picard v. Legacy Capital Ltd., Case No. 20-1334. See discussion infra Sections IV(I) and IV(R). On November 16, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the settlement agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement, Landmark is to pay approximately $3 million and make available to B&H attorneys relevant documents and information that will assist the Trustee in prosecuting other actions to avoid and recover customer property.

175. On August 30, 2021, the Second Circuit vacated the Bankruptcy Court's dismissal of the Trustee's actions against Citibank, N.A. and Legacy Capital, holding that in a SIPA liquidation the good faith defense is governed by an inquiry notice standard and that a SIPA trustee need not plead a transferee's lack of good faith. In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 12 F.4th 171, 185-200 (2d Cir. 2021).

176. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, continued to analyze legal issues in the case and reviewed relevant documents in preparation for drafting and finalizing amended complaints. B&H attorneys also engaged in efforts to obtain discovery from relevant parties and third parties. B&H attorneys also conferred with counsel for defendants regarding the next steps in the litigation between the Trustee and Luxalpha SICAV in light of the Second Circuit's decision on the good faith standard and pleading burden, and began preparing for oppositions to motions to dismiss by several of the defendants in the Luxalpha Action. B&H attorneys also completed and finalized the settlement and dismissal involving Landmark in the LIF Action.

177. On January 20, 2022, the Court entered a so-ordered stipulation between the Parties in the Luxalpha Action regarding the filing of the Trustee's Second Amended Complaint. Pursuant to the stipulation, on February 7, 2022, the Trustee provided Defendants with the Proposed Second Amended Complaint. Merrill Lynch Int'l*, Adv. No. 10-05346 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010).

214. On August 30, 2021, the Second Circuit issued the Citibank Decision, 12 F.4th 171 (2d Cir. 2021), holding that in a SIPA liquidation the good faith defense provided in 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(c) and 550(b) is governed by an inquiry notice standard and that a SIPA trustee does not bear the burden of pleading a transferee's lack of good faith. The Citibank Decision vacated a prior decision from the district court, which held that in a SIPA liquidation good faith is governed by a willful blindness standard and that a SIPA trustee bears the burden of pleading the transferee's lack of good faith.

215. During the Compensation Period and following the Citibank Decision, counsel for the Trustee agreed with MLI's counsel on a date by which defendants will respond to the Trustee's complaints and move these cases into discovery. B&H attorneys also analyzed the filed complaint in the MLI Action and assessed potential motion practice and discovery.

N. MATTER 53 – MAGNIFY

248. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys in connection with the avoidance action against Magnify Inc., Premero Investments Ltd., Strand International Investments Ltd., The Yeshaya Horowitz Association, Yair Green and Express Enterprises Inc. (collectively, the "Magnify Defendants") seeking the return of over $150 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the defendants. Picard v. Magnify Inc., et.al., Adv. No. 10-05279 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 6, 2010).

249. The matter also concerns the Trustee's subsequent transferee action in the United States brought to recover subsequent transfers of customer property from The Yeshaya Horowitz Association to Defendants The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Yisum Research Development Corporation of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Ltd., Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, B.G. Negev Technologies and Applications Ltd., The Weizmann Institute of Science, and Bar Ilan University (collectively, the "Subsequent Transfer Defendants"). Picard v. Hebrew University of Jerusalem et al., Adv. No. 21-01190 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 27, 2021). On February 10, 2022, the Subsequent Transfer Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Trustee's complaint (ECF No. 17). The Trustee filed his opposition to the motion to dismiss on June 15, 2022 (ECF No. 36).

250. Following the Court's Order of June 18, 2019 directing the parties to participate in mediation (ECF No. 181) and the July 11, 2019 order appointing Mr. Ted Berkowitz as the mediator (ECF No. 185), the parties engaged in a mediation from September 12-14, 2019 to consider a settlement framework that would involve both the U.S. action and the Trustee's action in Israel against certain defendants ("Israeli Direct Action"). Following the mediation session, discussions among the parties continued, and the terms of a settlement were reached.

251. The Trustee continued negotiating and drafting agreements for the resolution of those actions, along with consent judgments to be entered against the defendants and other ancillary documents. In connection with the negotiations, the Trustee conducted due diligence on financial disclosures provided by the defendants. Finally, as a result of those efforts, the Trustee entered into a settlement agreement with the Magnify Defendants, which was approved by the Bankruptcy Court on September 28, 2020 (ECF No. 197), and with the defendants in the Israeli Direct Action as well.

252. In addition to a settlement payment of $3.5 million USD, which exceeded the two-year fictitious profits alleged against certain defendants, the settlement avoided the full life-to-date amount of the initial transfers as fictitious profits pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. The settlement resulted in Consent Judgments against Defendants Magnify, Premero, Strand, and YHA for the full amount of the unrecovered liability alleged by the Trustee, among other benefits. YHA has no assets and did not contribute to the settlement payment. The Consent Judgments were entered by the Court on October 22, 2020 (ECF Nos 198-202).

253. After the settlement was approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Trustee filed a complaint seeking the recovery of certain subsequent transfers from several subsequent transferees who received tens of millions of dollars that originated from the fraud at BLMIS. That complaint was filed in September 2021 (ECF No. 1). Defendants filed a motion to dismiss on February 10, 2022 (ECF No. 16) accompanied by several declarations. During the Compensation Period, the Trustee prepared his opposition to the Defendants' motion to dismiss and supporting documents, which was filed on June 15, 2022 (ECF No. 36).

254. The Trustee also, and separately, continued to prosecute his pending action in Israel, commenced in 2015, to recover funds transferred to individuals and entities through the Magnify Defendants' BLMIS accounts ("Israeli Indirect Action"). During the Compensation Period, the Trustee worked with Israeli counsel to analyze strategic issues relating to the case, including the extensive production of documents, affidavits and other materials in support of his case, and working with experts in both the U.S. and Israel in connection with expert reports and related materials.

255. Additionally, during the Compensation Period, the Trustee continued to navigate multiple issues concerning document discovery and performing various legal and factual research to help prosecute the Trustee's cases.

O. MATTER 60 – AVELLINO & BIENES

256. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Avellino & Bienes, Frank J. Avellino, Michael S. Bienes, Nancy C. Avellino, Dianne K. Bienes, Thomas G. Avellino, and numerous other trusts and entities (collectively, the "A&B Defendants") seeking the return of over $904 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the A&B Defendants. Picard v. Avellino, Adv. No. 10-05421 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 10, 2010).

257. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, performed overall case management and prepared for trial.

258. B&H attorneys mainly focused on the Trustee's summary judgment motion (the "Motion") seeking to avoid and recover fictitious profits made to certain defendants between December 11, 2006 and December 11, 2008, and seeking an order holding the general partners liable for the intentionally fraudulent transfers and requiring the general partners to return those transfers to the Trustee, including drafting the Trustee's memorandum of law in support of its motion for summary judgment, drafting the Trustee's Rule 56.1 statement of material facts, drafting the Trustee's supporting declaration, and identifying potential exhibits. In connection with the summary judgment motion, B&H attorneys also analyzed defendants' expert's opinions, reviewed and identified key documents, analyzed deposition testimony of defendants and third parties (including former BLMIS employees and experts), researched issues, and developed themes and arguments. The Trustee filed his motion on February 3, 2022.

259. B&H attorneys prepared for, drafted, and filed the Trustee's reply to defendants' April 5, 2022 opposition to the Trustee's Motion (the "Reply"), which included conducting research, strategizing, identifying evidentiary issues, identifying evidence, and replying to defendants' objections and responses to the Trustee's 56.1 Statement of Material Facts in support of the Motion. The Trustee filed his Reply on May 23, 2022.

260. B&H attorneys also prepared for and appeared for oral argument on the Motion before Judge Morris on June 15, 2022, which involved outlining and finalizing arguments, strategizing and anticipating potential questions from the Court, and reviewing and summarizing key caselaw in anticipation of same.

P. MATTER 62 – SUBSEQUENT TRANSFERS

261. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing recovery actions against entities that received subsequent transfers of Customer Property from BLMIS.

262. The Trustee has approximately 80 subsequent transfer cases that seek to recover transfers of customer property of approximately $3.88 billion that defendants received from various BLMIS feeder funds, including the "Fairfield Funds" managed by the Fairfield Greenwich Group, the "Tremont Funds" managed by Tremont Partners, Inc., and/or Harley International (Cayman) Limited.

263. Prior to this Compensation Period, on August 30, 2021, the Second Circuit issued the Citibank Decision, 12 F.4th 171 (2d. Cir. 2021), holding that in a SIPA liquidation the good faith defense provided in 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(c) and 550(b) is governed by an inquiry notice standard and that a SIPA trustee does not bear the burden of pleading a transferee's lack of good faith. The Citibank Decision vacated a prior decision from the district court, which held that in a SIPA liquidation good faith is governed by a willful blindness standard and that a SIPA trustee bears the burden of pleading the transferee's lack of good faith.

264. During the Compensation Period, and following the Citibank Decision, counsel for the Trustee met and conferred with counsel for the subsequent transfer defendants to discuss a date by which defendants will respond to the Trustee's complaints. Defendants in dozens of different adversary proceedings filed motions to dismiss the Trustee's complaints, which the Trustee opposed. In a number of cases, the Trustee also prepared and filed amended complaints that seek to add or correct transfers that defendants received from the various feeder funds, or to add a defendant and/or substitute a new defendant for an old one pursuant to Rule 15 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

265. After the Compensation Period, Judge Morris heard oral arguments on the motions to dismiss and subsequently denied in its entirety defendants' motions to dismiss in six cases. See Picard v. Banque SYZ & Co., SA, Adv. Pro. No. 11-02149, ECF No. 167; Picard v. Multi-Strategy Fund Limited, Adv. Pro. No. 12-01205, ECF No. 122; Picard v. Bordier & Cie, Adv. Pro. No. 12-01695, ECF No. 105; Picard v. Banque Lombard Odier & Cie SA, Adv. Pro. No. 12-01693, ECF No. 115; Picard v. Lloyds TSB Bank PLC, Adv. Pro. No. 12-01207, ECF No. 105; Picard v. Banca Carige S.P.A., Adv. Pro. No. 11-02570, ECF No. 123.

Q. MATTER 63 – CITRUS INVESTMENT HOLDINGS, LTD.

266. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Citrus Investment Holdings, Ltd. ("Citrus") seeking the return of approximately $17 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent transfers in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Citrus (the "Citrus Action"). Picard v.

Citrus Investment Holdings, Ltd., Adv. No. 10-04471 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. November 30, 2010).

267. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, continued preparing an amended complaint and analyzing potential subsequent transfer claims in addition to the claims set forth in the original complaint. This work included review and analysis of recent motions to dismiss and decisions in related matters with similar or overlapping issues and parties and revising the amended complaint's allegations to meet the current pleading standards. B&H attorneys also continued reviewing account documents, correspondence and documents produced by service providers to Citrus for purposes of identifying additional evidence to support the amended complaint and engaged in discovery planning and analysis related to potential settlement negotiations.

R. MATTER 65 – LEGACY

268. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Legacy Capital Ltd. (“Legacy”) seeking the return of over $218 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Legacy. Picard v. Legacy Capital Ltd., Adv. No. 10-05286 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 6, 2010) (the “Legacy Initial Transfer Action”).

269. As background, on November 12, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered a Stipulation and Order for Entry of Final Judgment (“Stipulated Order”), that included, among other things: (i) the Trustee's and Legacy's consent to the Bankruptcy Court's entry of a final order and judgment in connection with the Trustee's avoidance claim, and (ii) entry of the final order and judgment against Legacy in the amount of $79,125,781.00. The Stipulated Order further provided that “the Legacy Transfers are avoidable and avoided under § 548(a)(1)(A) and recoverable from Legacy under §550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.”

270. On November 11, 2020, and within the time period set forth in §550(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee filed a recovery complaint against Rafael Mayer, David Mayer, Montpellier International, Ltd., Prince Assets LDC, Khronos Group, Ltd., Montpellier USA Holdings, LLC, Price Resources LDC, Prince Capital Partners LLC, and Khronos Liquid Opportunities Fund Ltd. (collectively, the “Subsequent Transfer Defendants”). The complaint sought recovery of approximately $49,505,850 in subsequent transfers of BLMIS customer property originally made to Montpellier and Prince by Legacy. See Picard v. Mayer et al., Adv. No. 20-01316 (CGM) (the “Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action”). Among the claims were claims for vicarious liability including alter ego liability and piercing the corporate veil concerning the individual defendants.

271. On March 2, 2021, Subsequent Transfer Defendants Rafael Mayer, David Mayer, Price Resources LDC, Prince Capital Partners LLC, and Khronos Liquid Opportunities Fund Ltd. filed Motions to Dismiss the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action. The Court set oral argument on the Motions to Dismiss for June 16, 2021. The briefing schedule and hearing date were extended by stipulation and oral argument on the Motions to Dismiss was held on September 15, 2021.

272. On August 30, 2021, the Second Circuit issued a decision concerning an appeal in Picard v. Citibank, N.A. and Picard v. Legacy Capital, Ltd., holding that in a SIPA liquidation the good faith defense provided in 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(c) and 550(b) is governed by an inquiry notice standard and that a SIPA trustee does not bear the burden of pleading a transferee’s lack of good faith (the “Good Faith Decision”). The Good Faith Decision vacated Judge Rakoff’s 2014 consolidated good faith decision holding that in a SIPA liquidation good faith is governed by a willful blindness standard and that a SIPA trustee bears the burden of pleading the transferee's lack of good faith. The Good Faith Decision also vacated Judge Bernstein's decision in the Trustee's action against Legacy applying Judge Rakoff's good faith decision, which had dismissed all claims in that action except for Count I to the extent it related to avoidance of fictitious profits. The Second Circuit remanded the Legacy Initial Transfer Action to the Bankruptcy Court for the proceedings to continue consistent with the appellate decision.

273. On October 27, 2021, Judge Morris issued a memorandum decision denying the Motions to Dismiss filed by Rafael Mayer, David Mayer, and Khronos Liquid Opportunities Fund Ltd. By stipulation of the parties, Subsequent Transfer Defendants Rafael Mayer, David Mayer, Prince Resources LDC, Prince Capital Partners LLC and Khronos Liquid Opportunities Fund Ltd. agreed to file Answers to the Trustee's Complaint on or before January 10, 2022.

274. On January 10, 2022, all Subsequent Transfer Defendants filed answers in the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action.

275. On January 26, 2022, the Subsequent Transfer Defendants filed a joint motion pursuant to § 28 U.S.C. 157(d), Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 5011, and Rule 5011-1 of the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court, seeking withdrawal of the reference to the Bankruptcy Court of the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action (the "Motion to Withdraw the Reference"). The Motion to Withdraw the Reference was assigned to District Judge Denise L. Cote.

276. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, prepared and served an opposition brief on February 25, 2022 in connection with the Motion to Withdraw the Reference. The Subsequent Transfer Defendants filed replies on March 11, 2022.

277. On March 17, 2022, Judge Cote issued a memorandum decision denying the Subsequent Transfer Defendants' Motion to Withdraw the Reference, without prejudice to refile when the case was trial ready.

278. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, prepared a case management and discovery plan for the remanded Legacy Initial Transfer Action. On February 9 and 18, 2022, the Trustee and counsel for Legacy Capital participated in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) conferences in connection with the proposed schedule. Further, B&H attorneys prepared discovery requests for party and third-party witnesses in connection with the Legacy Initial Transfer Action.

279. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, prepared a motion to consolidate the Legacy Initial Transfer Action and the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action for all pre-trial purposes (the "Motion to Consolidate"). The Motion to Consolidate was filed on February 24, 2022 and the Trustee sought a hearing date of March 16, 2022. By stipulation of the parties, the hearing date was adjourned until April 7, 2022, and the briefing schedule for the Motion to Consolidate was entered with oppositions due on March 23, 2022 and replies due on March 30, 2022.

280. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, prepared for oral argument in connection with the Motion to Consolidate. On April 7, 2022, the Court heard oral argument on the Motions to Consolidate. On the same day Judge Morris read her opinion into the record and granted the Trustee's Motion to Consolidate in part as to consolidated discovery on the issue of Legacy Capital's and the Subsequent Transfer Defendants' "good faith" defense. Judge Morris also ordered that the Legacy Initial Transfer Action and Legacy Subsequent Transfer Actions proceed to discovery as to all other case issues.

281. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, began to work on a case management and discovery plan for the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action. Further, B&H attorneys prepared initial disclosures as well as discovery requests for party and third-party witnesses in connection with the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action.

S. MATTER 71 – SQUARE ONE

282. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance and recovery action against Square One Fund Ltd. (“Square One”) seeking the return of approximately $26 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, and the New York Debtor and Creditor Law, in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Square One. Picard v. Square One Fund Ltd., Adv. Pro. No. 10-04330 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 2010).

283. Prior to the Compensation Period, the Trustee filed and served the Amended Complaint on December 21, 2018. (ECF Nos. 167–69). After Square One filed a motion to dismiss on February 14, 2019 (ECF No. 170), the Court granted in part and denied in part the motion to dismiss at a hearing on May 29, 2019. On June 13, 2019, the Court entered an order granting in part and denying in part Square One’s motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 177). The Court so-ordered a Case Management Plan on July 16, 2019. (ECF No. 178).

284. During the Compensation Period, the Trustee and Square One continued to engage in fact discovery pursuant to the Court’s Case Management Plan.

285. On December 6, 2021, counsel for the Trustee filed an application in the United Kingdom with the court for the examination of witness, Ms. Catherine Lemaitre, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court’s August 3, 2021 Order (ECF No. 226).

286. On December 20, 2021, the High Court of Justice, Queen's Bench Division in the United Kingdom issued an Order allowing for a period of time for witness, Ms. Catherine Lemaitre, to object to the examination.

287. On January 24, 2022, the High Court of Justice, Queen's Bench Division issued an Order allowing for the examination of witness, Ms. Catherine Lemaitre.

288. On February 11, 2022, the Trustee filed a Motion for the Issuance of Letter of Request for Service Abroad of Judicial or Extrajudicial Documents in a Civil or Commercial Matter for the examination of Mr. Jérôme Müller. (ECF No. 236). This motion was unopposed and on February 18, 2022, the Trustee filed a Certificate of No Objection to the Trustee's Motion for the Issuance of a Letter of Request for Service Abroad of Judicial or Extrajudicial Documents in a Civil or Commercial Matter for the examination of Mr. Jérôme Müller. (ECF No. 238).

289. The Trustee agreed to stipulate with defendant, Square One Fund Ltd., to allow the filing of an amended answer. (ECF No. 239). On February 18, 2022, Square One filed an Amended Answer to the Amended Complaint. (ECF No. 240).

290. On March 1, 2022, Judge Morris entered an Order Issuing a Letter of Request for Service Abroad of Judicial or Extrajudicial Documents in a Civil or Commercial Matter for the examination of Mr. Jérôme Müller. (ECF No. 243).

291. On March 8, 2022, the Trustee attended and took the examination of Ms. Catherine Lemaitre in London, United Kingdom, in accordance with the Order Issuing the Letter of Request for Service Abroad of Judicial or Extrajudicial Documents in a Civil or Commercial Matter (ECF No. 226).

T. MATTER 73 – BNP PARIBAS

292. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys in separate adversary proceedings that collectively seek the return of approximately $1 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, and the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act from BNP Paribas S.A. and its subsidiaries—BNP Paribas Arbitrage SNC, BNP Paribas Bank & Trust (Cayman) Limited, BNP Paribas Securities Services, BNP Paribas (Suisse) S.A., and BGL BNP Paribas Luxembourg S.A., (collectively, the “BNP Paribas Defendants”)—who redeemed money from feeder funds that invested with BLMIS. See Picard v. BNP Paribas Arbitrage, SNC, Adv. No. 11-02796 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 3, 2011); Picard v. BNP Paribas S.A., Adv. No. 12-01576 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 4, 2012); and Picard v. Equity Trading Portfolio Ltd., Adv. No. 10-04457 (CGM) (Bank. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 1, 2010) (collectively, the “BNP Paribas Proceedings”).

293. On October 3, 2018, the Bankruptcy Court issued its decision granting in part and denying in part the BNP Paribas Defendants’ motion to dismiss claims to recover subsequent transfers that the BNP Paribas Defendants received from certain Tremont feeder funds, and on January 17, 2019, the BNP Paribas Defendants filed their answer to the Trustee’s Amended Complaint.

294. The parties then agreed to stay the proceedings until the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit decided the good faith appeal pending in the Trustee’s actions against Citibank, N.A. and Legacy Capital Ltd. See discussion supra Section IV(I) and (R).

295. During the Compensation Period, following the Second Circuit’s decision in Picard v. Citibank N.A. and Picard v. Legacy Capital, Ltd., in In re Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC, 12 F.4th 171 (2d Cir. 2021), B&H attorneys analyzed the filed complaints in the BNP Paribas Proceedings, investigated potential amendments, and assessed potential motion practice and discovery.

U. MATTER 77 – EXTRATERRITORIALITY

296. On July 6, 2014, the District Court held that certain of the Trustee’s claims were barred by principles of international comity and the presumption against extraterritoriality, stating that “section 550(a) does not apply extraterritorially to allow for the recovery of subsequent transfers received abroad by a foreign transferee from a foreign transferor,” and directed further proceedings related to the Trustee’s claims be returned to the Bankruptcy Court. Sec. Inv’r Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 513 B.R. 222 (S.D.N.Y. 2014).

297. On November 22, 2016, this Court issued a decision granting in part and denying in part defendants’ motion to dismiss on extraterritoriality. Sec. Inv’r Prot. Corp v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, Adv. Pro. No. 08-01789 (ECF No. 14495).

298. On February 25, 2019, the Second Circuit reversed the rulings of the District Court and Bankruptcy Court. The Second Circuit held that neither the presumption against extraterritoriality nor international comity limits the reach of section 550(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, enabling the Trustee to recover property from certain subsequent transferees. Accordingly, the Second Circuit vacated the judgments of the Bankruptcy Court and remanded for further proceedings. In re Picard, Tr. for Liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, No. 17-2992 (L), 2019 WL 903978 (2d Cir. Feb. 25, 2019). On April 8, 2019, defendants filed a motion to stay the issuance of the mandate pending the filing of a petition for a writ of certiorari, (ECF No. 1413), which the Second Circuit granted on April 23, 2019. (ECF No. 1503).

299. On August 30, 2019, defendant-petitioners filed a petition for a writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States. HSBC Holdings PLC v. Irving H. Picard, No. 19-277. On September 30, 2019, amicus briefs in support of petitioners were filed by the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands; certain British Virgin Islands restructuring professionals; Cayman Finance and Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association of the Cayman Islands; Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association of Bermuda; and the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association, the Institute of International Bankers, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

On October 30, 2019, the Trustee as respondent filed his brief in opposition to the defendants' petition, and the petitioners filed their reply brief on November 14, 2019.

300. On December 9, 2019, the Supreme Court of the United States invited the Solicitor General to file a brief in this case expressing the views of the United States. On April 10, 2020, the Solicitor General filed a brief recommending that the Court deny the petition.

301. The petition was distributed on April 28, 2020 for consideration at the Court's May 14, 2020 conference. On June 1, 2020, the Supreme Court denied defendants' petition.

V. COMPENSATION REQUESTED

302. This Application has been prepared in accordance with the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995, as amended on August 1, 2013 (the "Local Guidelines") and the Second Amended Compensation Order. Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, the declaration of David J. Sheehan, Esq., regarding compliance with the same is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

303. The Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, expended 69,182.50 hours in the rendition of professional and paraprofessional services during the Compensation Period, resulting in an average hourly discounted rate of $515.77 for fees incurred. The blended attorney rate is $598.95.

304. Prior to filing this Application, in accordance with the Second Amended Compensation Order, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided to SIPC: (i) monthly fee statements setting forth the Trustee's and B&H's fees for services rendered and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, and (ii) a draft of this Application. In connection with the four monthly statements, the Trustee and B&H voluntarily adjusted their fees by writing off $1,688,704.60 (not including the 10% public interest discount, as discussed below), and wrote off expenses customarily charged to other clients in the amount of $50,028.57.

305. At SIPC's request, the Trustee's and B&H's fees in this case reflect a 10% public interest discount from their standard rates. This discount has resulted in an additional voluntary reduction during the Compensation Period of $3,964,712.40. The requested fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market.

306. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on January 19, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from December 1, 2021 through December 31, 2021 (the "December Fee Statement"). The December Fee Statement reflected fees of $8,322,219.80 and expenses of $41,372.40. SIPC's staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the December Fee Statement reflected fees of $7,489,997.82 and expenses of $41,258.89. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $6,740,998.04 for services rendered and $41,258.89 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

307. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on February 17, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from January 1, 2022 through January 31, 2022 (the "January Fee Statement"). The January Fee Statement reflected fees of $10,647,801.90 and expenses of $177,022.96. SIPC's staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the January Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,583,021.71 and expenses of $176,979.25. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $8,624,719.54 for services rendered and $176,979.25 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

308. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on March 16, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from February 1, 2022 through February 28, 2022 (the “February Fee Statement”). The February Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,816,332.80 and expenses of $114,164.11. SIPC’s staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the February Fee Statement reflected fees of $8,834,699.52 and expenses of $114,131.05. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $7,951,229.57 for services rendered and $114,131.05 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

309. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on April 18, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from March 1, 2022 through March 31, 2022 (the “March Fee Statement”). The March Fee Statement reflected fees of $10,860,769.50 and expenses of $156,048.11. SIPC’s staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the March Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,774,692.55 and expenses of $155,890.18. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $8,797,223.29 for services rendered and $155,890.18 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

310. Exhibit B annexed hereto is a schedule of the B&H professionals, including the Trustee, and B&H paraprofessionals who have provided services for the Trustee during the Compensation Period, the capacity in which each individual is employed by B&H, the year in which each attorney was licensed to practice law, the hourly billing rate charged by B&H for services provided by each individual, the aggregate number of hours billed by each individual, and the total compensation requested for each individual, prior to the 10% discount.

311. Exhibit C annexed hereto is a summary of compensation by work task code and matter number for total number of hours expended and total fees for services rendered by B&H professionals and paraprofessionals. The 10% discount is taken off the total cumulative amount billed, as reflected on Exhibit C.

312. Exhibit D annexed hereto provides a schedule of the expenses for which reimbursement is requested by B&H.

313. Exhibit E annexed hereto is a calculation of the Holdback amounts and the release sought, as explained below in Section VI.

314. There is no agreement or understanding among the Trustee, B&H, and any other person, other than members of B&H, for sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case. No agreement or understanding prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been made or will be made by the Trustee or B&H.

315. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Compensation Period but were not classified or processed prior to the preparation of this Application, the Trustee and B&H reserve the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

VI. RELEASE OF THE HOLDBACK

316. The Compensation Order established an orderly, regular process for the allowance and payment of interim monthly compensation and reimbursement to the Trustee and payment of interim monthly compensation and reimbursement to the Trustee and B&H. (ECF Nos. 126, 1078, 4125). Pursuant to the Compensation Order, payment of a percentage of the approved compensation – initially twenty percent (20%), subsequently reduced to fifteen percent (15%), and thereafter reduced to ten percent (10%) – is deferred through the conclusion of the liquidation period or until further order of the Court (the “Holdback”).

317. For this and prior Compensation Periods, the amount of the Holdback for B&H’s fees is $20,143,778.76, which includes $3,568,241.16 held back in connection with this Application. The Trustee and B&H seek a release of the Holdback in the amount of $10,071,889.38, upon the consent and approval of SIPC.

318. SIPC has advised that it will file a recommendation in support of the fees and expenses requested in this Application and the release of the Holdback in the amount of $10,071,889.38 for the Applicants.

VII. REQUEST FOR INTERIM COMPENSATION SHOULD BE GRANTED

319. Section 78eee(b)(5)(A) of SIPA provides in pertinent part that, upon appropriate application and after a hearing, “[t]he court shall grant reasonable compensation for services rendered and reimbursement for proper costs and expenses incurred . . . by a trustee, and by the attorney for such a trustee” Section 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA specifically establishes SIPC’s role in connection with applications for compensation and the consideration the Court should give to SIPC’s recommendation concerning fees. That section provides as follows:

In any case in which such allowances are to be paid by SIPC without reasonable expectation of recoupment thereof as provided in this chapter and there is no difference between the amounts requested and the amounts recommended by SIPC, the court shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC. In determining the amount of allowances in all other cases, the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, and shall place considerable reliance on the recommendation of SIPC. SIPA § 78eee(b)(5)(C).

320. To the extent the general estate is insufficient to pay such allowances as an expense of administration, § 78eee(b)(5)(E) of SIPA requires SIPC to advance the funds necessary to pay the compensation of the Trustee and B&H. See SIPA § 78fff-3(b)(2).

321. While the Trustee has recovered, or entered into agreements to recover, over $14.532 billion as of May 31, 2022, a significant portion of these funds must be held in reserve pending final resolution of several appeals and disputes.

322. Accordingly, the Trustee has determined that, at this time, he has no reasonable expectation that the general estate will be sufficient to make a distribution to general creditors or pay administrative expenses. The Trustee has been advised by SIPC that it concurs in this belief. Any fees and expenses allowed by this Court will be paid from advances by SIPC without any reasonable expectation by SIPC of recoupment thereof.

323. Therefore, with respect to this Application, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, request that consistent with § 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, the Court “shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC.” See In re Bell & Beckwith, 112 B.R. 876 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1990). SIPC will file its recommendation to the Court with respect to this Application prior to the hearing scheduled to be held on August 10, 2022.

324. The Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, submit that the request for interim allowance of compensation and expenses made by this Application is reasonable and complies with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code governing applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to § 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA

VIII. CONCLUSION

The Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, respectfully submit that the services rendered during the Compensation Period and accomplishments to date merit the approval of the fees and disbursements requested herein, and respectfully requests that the Court enter Orders as follows: (i) allowing and awarding $35,682,411.60 (of which $32,114,170.44 is to be paid currently and $3,568,241.16 is to be held back through the conclusion of the liquidation period or until further order of the Court) as an interim payment for professional services rendered by the Trustee and B&H during the Compensation Period, and $488,259.37 as reimbursement of the actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H in connection with the rendition of such services; (ii) releasing $10,071,889.38 to the Trustee and B&H from the Holdback; and (iii) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
